The Cross Country Journal, published six times a year, began publication with the May/June 1983 issue [Volume I, Number 1 (abbreviated as I/1)].

The Volume/Numbers run as follows:

I/1	May/June 1983	I/3	Sept/Oct 1983	I/5	Jan/Feb 1984
I/2	July/Aug 1983	I/4	Nov/Dec 1983	I/6	March/Apr 1984

Every volume begins with the May/June issue:

II/1	May/June 1984	X/1	May/June 1992	XVIII/1	May/June 2000
III/1	May/June 1985	XI/1	May/June 1993	XIX/1	May/June 2001
IV/1	May/June 1986	XII/1	May/June 1994	XX/1	May/June 2002
V/1	May/June 1987	XIII/1	May/June 1995	XXI/1	May/June 2003
VI/1	May/June 1988	XIV/1	May/June 1996	XXII/1	May/June 2004
VII/1	May/June 1989	XV/1	May/June 1997	XXIII/1	May/June 2005
VIII/1	May/June 1990	XVI/1	May/June 1998	XXIV/1	May/June 2006
IX/1	May/June 1991	XVII/1	May/June 1999

For example, XII/4 indicates the fourth issue in the twelfth volume, or the Nov/Dec issue of 1995.

How to read the entries:

The entries in bold indicate articles generated from one of our panels of experienced coaches. An entry will consist of a question about coaching Cross Country, and the responses of anywhere from four to twelve (or more) experienced coaches who have met with considerable success in our sport.

The entries in italics are essays or poems written by student-athletes. We have noticed that coaches like to use these to help motivate their runners.

The entries in plain type (i.e. not in bold or in italics) are normally articles written by a coach for other coaches.
